

Category 1: Research (special thanks to Pfizer for sponsoring)

First prize

Number 37

The Role of Medicines Information Services in Ireland in the Education and Development of Early Career Clinical Pharmacists - A Qualitative Interview Study

Ms. Eileen Whittle

St Vincent's University Hospital

Comment: really important piece of work which has national implication education and training

Second prize

Poster 33

Pharmacist-led Medicines Reconciliation: An Observational Study to Evaluate Information Sources as a Quality Indicator of the Service

Dzana Hadzic

Mater Misericordia Dublin

Comments: important evaluation with key findings regarding the accuracy of information sources

Highly commended

Poster 40 Moninne Howlett Efficiencies on Implementation of an Automatic Dispensing Cabinet into a Paediatric Emergency Department – An Observational Study, Children's Health Ireland Crumlin

Poster 35 Christine McAuliffe Polypharmacy in Atrial Fibrillation – Potential for Clinical Pharmacy Input, Tallaght University Hospital

Poster 31 Mrs. Barbara Nicolaou-Ghekas Exploring intern doctors' views and experiences of prescribing at hospital discharge: a qualitative interview study, James Connolly Memorial Hospital Blanchardstown

Thanks to our judges lead by Stephen Byrne UCC and team

11am Announcement Poster winners- Category 2 – Audit

First Prize:

Number _____ 16 _____

Title _____ An audit of the management of drug drug interactions associated with Paxlovid at a Tertiary Dublin Hospital_

Primary Author _____ Sinead O Mahony _____

Institution: _____ St Vincents University Hospital _____

Second Prize:

Number _____ 7 _____

Title _____ A Retrospective Audit of timing and appropriateness of Antimicrobial prescribing in presentations of suspected meningitis/encephalitis at an Irish Teaching hospital

Primary Author _____ Aaron Daunt _____

Institution: _____ St James Hospital Dublin _____

Highly Commended (up to 3 if appropriate):

1. Poster Number/Author _____ 10 – Clinical audit of analgesia and associated prescribing on Our Lady of Lourdes orthopaedic ward – Ms Marie Richardson_ Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital Drogheda _____

2. Poster Number/Author _____ 18 – An audit of Pharmacist discharge prescription review on orthopaedic rehabilitation wards – Lydia Duggan South Infirmary Victoria University Hospital Cork

Overall Comments:

The judging panel was delighted with the standard and obvious enthusiasm for audit _____

Thanks to our judges: Aisling O'Leary, Fionnuala Brady and Carmel Darcy

11am Announcement Poster winners- Category 3 – Service Development

First Prize:

Number _____ 58 _____

Title _____ A study to assess and enhance clinical prioritisation within the clinical pharmacy service at St James' Hospital Dublin _____

Primary Author _____ Rebecca Clarke _____

Institution: _____ St James Hospital Dublin _____

Comment:

_____ Hope to see it in a published paper useful to many hospital environments

Second Prize:

Number _____ 47 _____

Title _____ Design Implementation and evaluation of a medication counselling service provided by pharmacists using teach back at hospital discharge _____

Primary Author _____ Emer O Mahony _____

Institution: _____ Tallaght University Hospital _____

Comment:

Applicable across many sectors and areas – integrate into teaching!

Highly Commended (up to 3 if appropriate):

1. Poster Number/Author _59 Clinical Pharmacist interventions and severity rating project at Mayo University Hospital – Selena Gill - Mayo University Hospital
2. Poster Number/Author _45 A time saving analysis of benchtop preparation of subcutaneous monoclonal antibodies - Mr. Eoin Tabb – University Hospital Waterford
3. Poster Number/Author _64 - Evaluation of the decisions made by clinical pharmacists when charting medication following medication reconciliation in a tertiary hospital - Ms. Sinead O Mahony - St Vincent's University Hospital

Category 4 innovation

1st prize

68

Improving the clinical pharmacist handover process using an adapted ISBAR communication tool when transferring patients from Cork University Maternity Hospital (CUMH) to an intensive care unit (ICU) within Cork University Hospital

Ms. Maria Mulrooney

Cork University Hospital

Comments: excellent body of work with national applicability

Second prize

72

Intervention to improve vancomycin sampling time at St James' hospital

Roisin o Connor

St James' hospital

Comments: excellent patient safety initiative

Highly commended

Poster 74 Sandra Lauhoff Successful Implementation of a Focused Antimicrobial Stewardship Intervention for the Treatment of Cellulitis, Bon Secours Hospital Cork

Poster 75 Marie Ronan Antimicrobial Stewardship in the Digital Era, Mayo University Hospital

Thanks to our judges lead by Stephen Byrne UCC and team